In practice, this is associated with our Group's financial success, combined at the same time with incorporating responsibility into our daily management practices, supporting prosperity of society, establishing positive employment conditions, ensuring our passenger safety and reducing our environmental impact.'

As a pioneer in our commitment to incorporate global Corporate Responsibility principles, we are truly delighted to see more and more companies in our industry to develop initiatives related to Corporate Responsibility. We hope that our 10-year uninterrupted commitment to Accountability for the relevant initiatives, through the publication of our Corporate Responsibility Reports according to the highest international standards, will serve as an example for other companies as well.'

For our part, it is self-evident that we are fully committed to continue our efforts to further disseminate Corporate Responsibility both within and beyond Attica Group, as reflected in our Vision, Mission and Values, but above all in our employees' ethical behavior, being called upon every day to successfully overcome the daily challenges.'
